

29 BPHS STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN APPRENTICESHIPS

Twenty-nine Bethel Park High School students have been accepted into Apprenticeship Programs for the 2009-2010 school year, sponsored by the Allegheny Intermediate Unit. These programs focus on the arts, sciences and humanities, and provide students with hands-on experience in a field of interest.

- Samantha Albert Architecture
- Kara Berestecky Contemporary Dance
- Victoria Butler Filmmaking
- Alissa Clayton Marine Biology
- Tyler Cunningham Acting
- Erin Drum Associated Artists – Art Careers
- Kelsey Fink Education
- Kerry Jo Green Musical Theater
- Kevin Harvey Acting
- Sean Marie Herald Anthropology
- Margaux Krahe Robotics
- Courtney Lennix Nursing and Healthcare Careers
- Elizabeth Metzler Marine Biology
- Harrison Milinski Engineering – PA Society of Professional Engineers
- Audrey Miller Anthropology
- Emily Miller Avian Care & Training
- Brittini Nassan Marine Biology
- Henry Payseure Marine Biology

- Manasa Ravi Memoir (Creative Nonfiction Writing)
- Bridget Riley Screenwriting
- Taylor Robinson Contemporary Dance
- Kayla Rowland Avian Care & Training
- Jenna Schroeder Green Design (Civil Engineering)
- Sara Spadacene Pittsburgh CLO Academy of Musical Theater
- Natalie Spanner Acting
- Jimmy Stevenson Biotechnology
- Paul Stratemeier International Affairs
- Sarah Underwood Advertising/Public Relations
- Brennan Walsh Acting

These students will have the opportunity to work with organizations once a month, such as the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers and the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera, to gain in-depth experience in their field of interest.