

FIVE BETHEL PARK HIGH SCHOOL MUSICIANS PARTICIPATE IN PITTSBURGH SYMPHONY MASTER CLASS AT HEINZ HALL

Five Bethel Park High School musicians who are members of the BPHS Brass Ensemble were invited to participate in a two-hour Master Class, held at Heinz Hall by Pittsburgh Symphony musician George Vosburgh.

The Ensemble played “Second Suite in F” by Gustav Holst. Following their performance, Mr. Vosburgh critiqued the performance and offered suggestions to the musicians.

Participating were seniors Jeremy Ferlic, Ryan Kinzler, Andrew Roberts, Dan Salera and junior Jennifer Searles.

Over 50 students and teachers from area school districts participated in this program, which was of great value to all participants.

