Bethel Park
School District

PURPOSE:

The Bethel Park School District is pleased to host this program, designed to provide an opportunity for training and information sharing for parents/guardians.

OVERVIEW:

The agenda will include a viewing of INTELLIGENT LIVES, a movie from award-winning filmmaker Dan Habib, that challenges what it means to be intelligent, and points to a future in which people of all abilities can fully participate in higher education, meaningful employment, and intimate relationships.

An update of Best Buddies at Bethel Park High School will be shared as a vehicle to build friendships between people with and without intellectual disabilities (ID), offering social mentoring while improving the quality of life and level of inclusion for all students.

An overview of post-secondary options for young adults with ID will be shared by ACHIEVA which supports and empowers individuals with disabilities and their families.

PRESENTERS:

Allegheny Intermediate Unit (AIU #3)
Shelly Burr, Educational Consultant

Best Buddies Pittsburgh
Nicole Meier, Program Manager, Mission Expansion

ACHIEVA
Julie Trbovich, Director of Advocacy and Family Supports

Bethel Park School District
Lori Sutton, Director of Special Education
Dr. Sarah Shue, Asst. Director of Special Education

The evening is free. Any Bethel Park School District parents and staff are welcome to attend.

Light refreshments and “finger foods” will be served & there will be a drawing for a door prize.

We hope you can join us for this informative evening!
